PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

It gives me immense pleasure to present this edition of the E-Newsletter of R.S. More College, Govindpur, Dhanbad. A Newsletter is much more than a compilation of events and achievements; it is a living record of an institution's journey, reflecting its academic, cultural, social, and community-oriented endeavors over a specific period of time.

Add a littleThis publication serves as a valuable repository of our collective efforts and accomplishments. It preserves the memories of significant activities and milestones, enabling future generations of students to understand, appreciate, and carry forward the rich legacy of the institution. In this way, it becomes a bridge connecting the past, present, and future of our college.

The E-Newsletter also provides a platform to showcase innovative initiatives and best practices undertaken by our faculty, staff, and students. By sharing these experiences, we hope to inspire neighboring educational institutions to undertake similar meaningful activities that contribute to the holistic development of students and society.

Equally important, this publication strengthens our connection with the wider community. It highlights the commitment of the college towards academic excellence, social responsibility, and nation-building, thereby fostering greater trust, goodwill, and support among parents, alumni, stakeholders, and the local community.

I congratulate the editorial team and everyone who has contributed to this edition. I hope this E-Newsletter will continue to serve as a source of information, inspiration, and institutional pride for all its readers.

EDITORIAL PREFACE

From the Desk of the Editorial Board: Nurturing Excellence on the Historic G.T. Road

Welcome to the latest edition of the Ram Sahai Mull More College Institutional e-Newsletter. As the second oldest constituent institution in the Dhanbad district, our college stands proudly at the intersection of history, inclusivity, and contemporary higher education. Established in 1959 with the vision of bridging the educational divide for marginalized regional communities, this campus has evolved into a thriving centre for undergraduate programs across the Arts, Science, and Commerce streams.

Our strategic geographical layout alongside the National Highway (NH-19 / Old NH-2) offers an accessible academic sanctuary. It connects eager minds hailing from both rural Dhanbad and neighboring West Bengal. This digital chronicle serves as a vibrant canvas reflecting our community's day-to-day triumphs, pedagogical evolutions, and collaborative milestones. As you flip through these digital pages, we hope you feel inspired by the achievements of your peers and connected to the heartbeat of our college. Let us continue to collaborate, innovate, and push the boundaries of excellence. Enjoy reading!

NSS AND IQAC ORGANISED MEGA SEMINAR ON STRESS MANAGEMENT AND MENTAL HEALTH FOR YOUTH

30 May 2026 | R.S. More College, Govindpur, Dhanbad

In a significant collaborative effort to address the growing psychological pressures on modern students, a high-impact seminar titled "Stress Management and Mental Health: Need for the Youth" was organised on May 30, 2026. This vital wellness initiative was jointly spearheaded by the National Service Scheme (NSS) and Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) of R.S. More College (Govindpur), alongside the IQACs of BSK College (Maithon) and parent University BBMKU, Dhanbad.

The seminar featured HG Naam Prem Das from ISKCON, Jagjeevan Nagar, Dhanbad, as the distinguished mentor and keynote speaker. Bringing a unique blend of spiritual wisdom, ancient Vedic insights, and practical psychological tools, HG Naam Prem Das deeply engaged the packed auditorium of young minds.

During his transformative session, the mentor addressed the root causes of youth anxiety, peer pressure, academic stress, and digital distractions. He emphasized that mental strength came from internal balance and disciplined lifestyle habits, advising students to practice daily mindfulness, self-reflection, and positive association to conquer mental fatigue.

The collaborative nature of the event brought together academic administrators, IQAC coordinators, and NSS volunteers from multiple premier institutions under BBMKU. Speakers from the participating colleges highlighted that academic excellence was impossible without sound mental health, making such joint seminars an absolute necessity in today's fast-paced educational environment.
